Noted for her "impressive vocal range," soprano Amy Suznovich was the first recipient of the Deborah Maher Award and received nominations for Best Leading Actress as Cunegonde in Candide and Best Female Solo for her performance of Glitter and Be Gay. She will be performing this season as Gilda in Verdi in Vermont with the Southern Vermont Lyric Theatre, Lucia and Amina in Bel Canto Opera Concerts with Boheme Opera of NJ, and as a guest on the Veterans Corner Radio Show.

Last season she appeared as Giulietta and Juliette in Shakespeare in Opera with Boheme Opera, Soprano Soloist for Händel's Messiah with The Newtown Chamber Orchestra, and Soloist for Carmina Burana with the Hunterdon Symphony. She performed as the Hungarian Opera Singer in Our Town Now at the George Street Playhouse, and originated the roles of Frenchie in A Night in the Wilde Wild West with the Baroque Orchestra of NJ, and Dr. Lipskom in Sephro: Earth's Revenge at the Philadelphia Fringe Festival. Other past performances include: Angelica in Handel's Orlando, the title role in Handel's Rodelinda, Gilda in Rigoletto, Le Rossignol in Ravel's L'enfant et les sortilèges, La Prima Sorella Cercatrice in Suor Angelica, Musetta in La Boheme, Rosalina in Giordano's Il Re, Stepsister #2 in Warren Martin's True Story of Cinderella, Voce del cielo in Don Carlo and Fiametta/Casilda (cover) in Gondoliers. She has performed with the New Brunswick Chamber Orchestra, Queens Opera (NJ), Opera Siena, trio@Play and Main Street Theatre, among others.

Honoring her Polish-Hungarian-American heritage, she has performed Hungarian Operetta with the New Brunswick Chamber Orchestra, the Hungarian Festival in New Brunswick, the Carousel Ball Gala for the American Hungarian Foundation and also with Csurdongolo, a hungarian folk dance group.

Ms. Suznovich is an alumni of the OperaWorks Winter Intensive and a magna cum laude graduate of Ithaca College. Also active in theater, Amy has portrayed Helena in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Serenity in Mitch Albom's And The Winner Is and Rapunzel in Into the Woods at the Villagers Theatre in Somerset. She also appeared at the Access Theater (NYC) in When Words Fail as Elizabeth Swan and Helen."

Amy has performed the National Anthem and God Bless America for the Philadelphia Phillies, the Sky Blue FC Soccer Team (NJ), Trenton Thunder Baseball (NJ), Staten Island Yankees Baseball, Long Island Ducks Baseball (NY), Long Island Rough Riders Soccer Team (NY), Lake County Captains Baseball (OH), Frederick Keys Baseball (MD) and New Britain Rock Cats Baseball (CT).
